SHARING OUR FAITH

On the Feast of All Saints, we remember those whose love, example and quiet witness helped us to know Christ.

Many were ordinary people—parents, grandparents, friends and fellow parishioners—who passed on their faith through everyday kindness, prayer and conversation. Now it is our turn. Sharing our faith can begin with a simple invitation to Mass, offering to pray for someone, or speaking honestly about the hope God brings to our lives.

We do not need all the answers; we need a willingness to listen and the courage to share.

This week, who could you help take one small step closer to Christ?
